Have your say on the International Advanced Manufacturing Park

Under Section 47 of the Planning Act 2008

Take part in community consultation from 28 November 2016 to 16 January 2017

IAMP LLP, a new partnership between Sunderland City Council and South Tyneside Council, is keen to have your views on plans for the International Advanced Manufacturing Park (IAMP).

The project, which could create up to 5,200 new jobs, would involve building a world-class location for automotive and advanced manufacturing businesses on land to the north of Nissan Motor Manufacturing (UK).
